FRENCH FRANCO BRITISH TO BE HELD IN ELYSEE PALACE ON 10 MARCH 2023

PM RISHI SUNAK TO MEET PRES. E. MACRON

Paris, Washington DC, 09.03.2023, 14:11 Time

USPA NEWS - The Elysee (French Presidency) confirms the holding of the 36th Franco-British Summit will take place at the Elysée Palace, Friday March 10, 2023, despite the general strike, which began on March 7 against the reform of the retirement.
The President of the Republic, Emmanuel Macron will receive his British counterpart, Prime Minister Rishi Sunak, who will be accompanied by a delegation. According to Elysee, French Presidency, "This bilateral summit with the British is the first for 5 years, since the last one took place on January 18, 2018 in Sandhurst, in the presence of Mrs. Theresa May. We are also two weeks away from the visit of the king and the queen consort to Paris.'
The two respective delegations, French and British, will include seven (7) ministers (Minister of Foreign Affairs, Minister of Defence, Minister of the Economy, Minister of Energy, Ministers responsible for the Environment, Ministers of Transport and the Minister of the Interior), who will be able to exchange during a plenary session later in the day "perhaps for a common interest".
